THANK YOU TRUMBULL COUNTY!!!

Keith
FABER
★ ★ Our Auditor of State ★ ★

What an incredible night!

I am humbled by the opportunity to continue serving as your Auditor of State for the next four years.

In my first term, I convicted more than ninety corrupt public officials, uncovered billions in fraud and overpayments in our state's unemployment system, and identified hundreds of millions of dollars in wasteful government spending.

In my second term, I will continue to work every day to protect your tax dollars from waste, fraud, and abuse.

I look forward to getting back to work, but I wanted to take a moment today to say thank you for all that you have done for my campaign. Our victory last night would not have been possible without your prayers and support. It's the people who generously offer their time, talent, and treasure that keep our state moving in the right direction.

Thank you.

SANTUCCI

— STATE REPRESENTATIVE —

Thank you!

I'm humbled by the trust that the voters of the 64th District placed in me last night when they elected me to be their State Representative. It will be the honor of a lifetime to represent this community in Columbus.

Many people believed this race couldn't be won, but we showed them why it's never wise to count the Valley out. We won by uniting a bipartisan coalition of working families who agreed that the Valley deserves better.

There is no doubt that every one of you played a deciding role in this incredible victory, and I will never forget your support. Every door knocked, every phone call, every donation, and every postcard helped us secure our victory and flip a seat that many said was out of reach.

We've come a long way together, but this is only the beginning. Together, we will make Trumbull County a better place. I am honored to be the State Representative-Elect for the 64th District.

It's time to get to work.

Respectfully yours,

Frank LaRose
Ohio Secretary of State

Thank you,
Ohio!

Thank You!

I am honored that Ohioans have put their trust and confidence in me to serve another four years as Ohio's Treasurer. I've made it our mission to be trusted stewards of Ohioans' tax dollars, wise investors in our state's future, and bold innovators. We will build on the good work we've done and keep the Treasurer's office a cutting-edge financial powerhouse.

THE REPUBLICAN ALL-STARS
LEADING OHIO AND OUR COMMUNITIES IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION!!!

Thank you so much to the members of the Trumbull County GOP, and especially the TCRWC, for helping me win a decisive victory over my opponent to secure the position on the 11th District Court of Appeals. With the wins of Nick, Mike, Denny, Martha, John Hagan, and all of the state-wide candidates, I think it is safe to say that Trumbull is no longer a blue county - in fact, it's looking pretty red to me, thanks to your unceasing efforts. I look forward to enjoying your company over the next six years and delivering justice to the people of NE Ohio according to the rule of law. Congratulations to all of the Republican candidates.

Thank you to all of you who supported my campaign and voted for me! I appreciate your faith and trust in me to serve as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

We did it! Thank you for putting your trust in me to represent OH-14 for another term as your Congressman. I will make you proud by putting Northeast Ohio first and delivering results for the district. Your support means the world to me and I hope to make you proud.

Dear Fellow Republicans,

On December 7, 2022, the Trumbull County Republican Party will host our annual Christmas Party. The "No Snowflake Ball" will be held at DiLucia's Banquet Center on Elm Road in Warren.

With our success in the mid-term elections, and after a year of hard work and long hours, we would like to take this opportunity to celebrate that we are on our way to taking our country back. Our candidates, their families and friends, and all the volunteers and people behind the scenes deserve a fitting celebration. We are truly fortunate to be able to celebrate our successes and prepare for the Presidential Election in 2024. We look forward to your support and that of the community.

This year's ball will not feature speakers, but instead, we will have live music, good food and a Christmas program provided by a local business and supporter. It will truly be an entertaining evening to relax, have fun and enjoy.

We have sponsorships if you would like to help support our local GOP.

Sponsorship levels are:

Platinum Level $1,000

8 dinner tickets, fruit basket, Daffin's candy, an 8 X 10 photo, recognition in program

Gold Level $ 500

4 dinner tickets, fruit basket, Daffin's candy, a 5 X 7 photo, recognition in program

Silver Level $ 250

2 dinner tickets, fruit basket, candy and a 4 X 6 photo, recognition in program

We would like to help some of our local veterans attend this year. You can sponsor a veteran by buying an extra ticket for $50.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Katie Tingler, Trumbull County GOP Fundraising Chairman at 330-506-7236.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Kindest regards,

Mike Bollas

The wringing of the hands is furious. With another election less than a month away the anxiety is fierce. And the barbs are already flying.

I'm not talking about the distraction of Trump vs. DeSantis—the phony schoolyard fight.

I'm referring to the election of the next Senate leader for the GOP now that "Cocaine" Mitch McConnell has lost the Senate for the second cycle in a row. Elections bring about accountability. It's time to make a change and that change should be an advocate for America First.

With the media peddling the idea of the red "trickle" most haven't looked at the amazing accomplishments of this election.

Specifically, President Trump endorsed (America First) candidates went 219-16 among the races where President Trump worked, endorsed, rallied, and sacrificed. McConnell threw a record amount of money raised, in mostly only four Senate races, and discovered that just writing a check doesn't do the same thing.

Honestly, this race accomplished many amazing things! Progressive home of Alexandria Ocasio Cortez will send 11 of 26 congressional representatives to DC as Republicans. California will most likely deliver the final votes for the majority, but the GOP couldn't have done it without Zeldin campaigning his heart out in NY and getting them over the finish line.

This mid-term also turned the entire Iowa slate red. The first in the nation caucuses had been going lavender for cycles, but America First got the job done. This election also swept in not one, not a dozen but nearly 50 school boards across the country that kicked out progressive weirdos and installed America First parents who don't want their children being told: "they're racist, parents aren't an actual proper authority in their lives, and drag shows are acceptable."

This election also retired names from our lexicon. Words like "Beto," "Stacey Abrams," "Speaker Pelosi," "who is Evan McMullin," "Charlie Crist," and possibly "Minority Leader McConnell" we may never be forced to hear again!

He has it coming. McConnell that is.

He abandoned his party on the big lie that January 6th was a Trump-orchestrated protest. He bailed on several items from big pharma, to a green new deal. Worst of all he lacked a strategy and methodology to win/defend the seats needed to win the Senate. He raised a lot of cash, but winning requires more than cash. I thank him for ushering through Trump's 300 judicial nominees. But like Hawley, Cruz, and Rubio are all publicly calling for—it's time for new leadership.

Not surprisingly McConnell is ignoring the Georgia run-off and insisting the leadership election go forward before the race for Senator from Georgia is decided. It's selfish. It's a bad strategy when Walker needs a united party behind him, and it wreaks desperation.

Win or lose in Georgia, McConnell lost the Senate. Pelosi will likely be retired if she fails to hold the house. McConnell deserves the same scrutiny—it's what his job as leader demands.

OHIO'S JD VANCE ONE OF FEW BIG REPUBLICAN MIDTERM ELECTION WINNERS

BY BRIAN FRAGA

Although Democrats across the country widely performed better than expected in the Nov. 8 midterm elections, one Republican candidate also defied expectations: Ohio's now Senator-elect J.D. Vance.

The HILLBILLY ELEGY author and former venture capitalist defeated Congressman Tim Ryan, a Democrat, by nearly seven percentage points. Unlike other candidates backed by former President Donald Trump, Vance prevailed with that endorsement and by embracing Trump's brand of conservative populism.

"It doesn't surprise me that Vance won. What does surprise me is that he won by six or seven percentage points," Geoffrey Layman, chair of the political science department at the University of Notre Dame, told NCR.

Layman said that Ohio has now "clearly become a red state" after decades of being a bellwether for national elections.

"It seemed that Tim Ryan was the right kind of candidate for Democrats in Ohio," Layman said, referring to Ryan's image as a moderate Democrat from a working-class background who disagreed with some of his party's positions on trade and economic policy. He was elected in 2003 as a pro-life Democrat, before later changing his position on abortion.

Ryan, who was born into an Irish-Italian Catholic family, ran as a Catholic who embraced the kind of social justice and solidarity championed by Pope Francis, even though his positions in favor of abortion rights and LGBTQ rights clashed with official Catholic teachings.

In that regard, Ryan provided a stark contrast to Vance, a self-described "conservative Christian" who converted to Catholicism in 2019 and has echoed Trump's strident rhetoric on immigration and abortion while aligning himself with far-right political figures.

In contrast to expectations, various media voting projections in the days after the polls closed have indicated the GOP is tracking to regain control of the House, but with a much smaller majority than what polls and pundits had predicted.

As for the Senate, the nation may not know which party will control that chamber until a Dec. 6 runoff election in Georgia between Sen. Raphael Warnock, a Democrat, and his Republican challenger, retired football legend Herschel Walker.

Layman told NCR that history, high inflation and President Joseph Biden, a Democrat, having approval ratings below 50% would have likely cost the Democrats, who currently control both the House and Senate, at least 40 to 50 House seats in a normal election cycle.

But as low as Biden's approval ratings are, Layman said Trump remains a deeply polarizing figure, especially among moderate voters, who endorsed candidates whose campaigns fared poorly in several contested statewide elections.

Exit polling indicates that large numbers of voters were also angry with the Republican Party over the U.S. Supreme Court striking down the constitutional right to an abortion in its June 24 decision in DOBBS v. JACKSON WOMEN'S HEALTH ORGANIZATION. According to The New York Times and the Associated Press, voters in Michigan, California and Vermont chose to enshrine abortion rights in their state constitutions. In Kentucky, voters rejected a constitutional amendment that would have said residents in that state had no right to an abortion.
